

DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST

Agenda item 7 – Place-Based Investment Programme 2022/23 Town Centre Capital Fund

Councillor Alison Adamson stated that she had been present on several community council meetings when the Town Centre Capital Fund applications were discussed and had taken part in discussion but had not made any comments; she would therefore participate the item of business.

Councillor Robert DeBold stated that he had been present on several community council meetings when the Town Centre Capital Fund applications were discussed and had taken part in discussion but had not made any comments; he would therefore participate the item of business.

Julie Henderson stated that she had been involved in the submission of the Knightsridge Community Council application but would participate in the item of business.

Stephen Egan stated that he had been involved in the submission of the Eliburn Community Council application but would participate in the item of business.

Diane Loughlin stated that she had been involved in the submission of the Livingston Village Community Council application but would participate in the item of business.